
January 2026 was a wake up call to everyone.

Americans realized that ICE agents were brutally harming and kidnapping people without any repercussions.

In response to these daily injustices, communities began to

ORGANIZE

Students walked out of schools, workers refused to work.

and the community supported each other

any way they could.